RADIO GROUP TO ASK MOVE TO FORT WORTH

ATLANTA, Ga. (BP) — The Radio and Television Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, producers of the "Baptist Hour," Tuesday night voted unanimously to recommend to the Executive Committee of the Convention that it be allowed to move from its present site in Atlanta, Ga., to Fort Worth, Tex. This announcement was made by Malcolm B. Knight, Jacksonville, Fla., chairman of the twenty-nine member Commission. This was a semi-annual meeting.

The possibility of relocation came up early this year in an effort to arrive at more suitable technical facilities.

Decision to move to Fort Worth came after concentrated study of written proposals from several cities, including Atlanta and Tulsa, Okla., and visits to all cities by the Commission's Central Committee.

Several factors influenced the recommendation. Among them were: offer of Radio and Television Station WBAP's outstanding technical facilities, an apparent avenue to excellent local relations, and the scheduling of the "Baptist Hour" on a fifty thousand watt clear channel station. Access to more radio and television production facilities at cost, and a more adequate headquarters building also played a part in the decision.

The matter of moving the Commission was taken to the Southern Baptist Convention in St. Louis, Mo. last June, but by action of the Convention was referred to the Convention's Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee meets in Nashville, Tenn., December 15-16, at which time a final decision will be rendered.

Tuesday night's indications were that the Radio and Television Commission's headquarters would not be moved immediately.

Paul Stevens is director of the Commission.

Japanese Baptists Invite 1960 World Alliance

Japanese Baptists have invited the Baptist World Alliance to meet in Tokyo in 1960.

Meeting in fall executive session, leaders of the Japan Baptist Convention voted enthusiastically to invite the World Alliance to Tokyo and requested American Baptists to co-operate in the invitation and subsequent responsibilities.

Recognizing the heavy expense and preparation necessary for the international meeting, Convention leaders expressed confidence in the success of the undertaking.

Present trends in nation-wide evangelism indicate that the Convention's membership of 8,000 may reach 25,000 by 1960.

The group also voted to recognize Rev. and Mrs. Edwin B. Dozier and Dean Sadamoto Kawano of Seinan University as messengers from the Japan Baptist Convention to the Baptist World Alliance in London in 1955. Dr. Kawano is a vice-president of the World Alliance.

PARADE TO FEATURE 'CHRISTMAS CAROLS'

OKLAHOMA CITY—(RNS)—For the second consecutive year churches will add a striking religious note to the city's annual Christmas parade.

The eleven floats to be featured will be designed and decorated by members of 18 city churches under the direction of the special projects commission of the Oklahoma City Council of churches.

The parade, sponsored yearly by the Retailer's Association will be on Nov. 26.

This year's theme for floats is "Christmas Carols," with each depicting a yuletide song of religious significance. There will be a city high-school band before every float to play the particular carol being presented.

Also for the second year, the local Carpenters union is donating its services toward constructing (Continued on Page Two)

Cauthens Dedicate Home To Missions

The family of Dr. Baker James Cauthen, executive secretary, Foreign Mission Board, Southern Baptist Convention, is one of the best advertisements for both home and missions to be found anywhere. The Cauthens are the subject of a feature article in Home Life, December issue, by Ione Gray, also of the Foreign Mission Board, titled "A Home Dedicated to Missions."

The Cauthen family represents three generations of Southern Baptist missionaries. Mrs. Cauthen, the former Eloise Glass, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Glass, former missionaries to China. For six years the Cauthens served as missionaries to China. Now their teen-age children, Carolyn and Ralph, have dedicated themselves to mission service.

A year after the Cauthens began their tour of duty as missionaries in China, World War II exploded. There followed the agonies of separations, air raids, long nights in air raid shelters, serious illnesses among the parents and children.

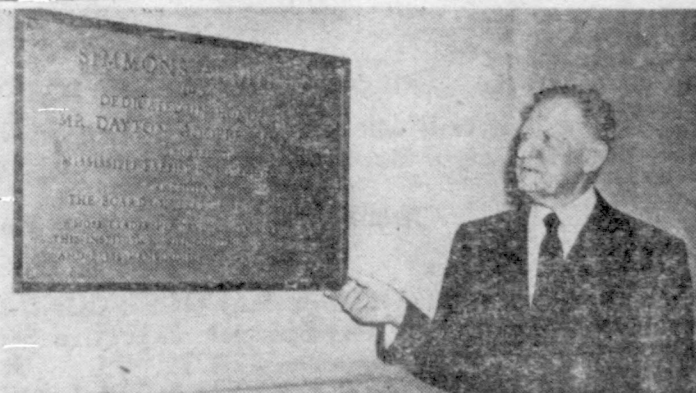

"In such times missionary families commit themselves to the Lord," Dr. Cauthen reveals in the Home Life article, "each member of the family committing the others and waiting on God's appointment. We learn that God's leadership is (Continued on Page Two)

Miss. Goal Is 100 Missions In 1955

ATLANTA, Ga. (BN) A goal of 2,555 new missions in '55 has been set by 22 states in cooperation with the Department of Cooperative Missions of the Home Mission Board.

These missions are to be sponsored by churches that have not sponsored a mission before. It is urged that the local budget of the church provide for the mission so as not to affect the present or future percentages of the Cooperative Program.

The goal for Mississippi is 100. Dr. S. F. Dowis, Secretary of the Department of Cooperative Missions, in cooperation with the state mission boards conducted a survey which revealed a need of 10,000 new missions in cities with population of 3,000 and up, in rural areas, 3,000 new missions, and in pioneer mission fields, 7,000. It was found that if these 20,000 missions grew into churches there would be no overlapping with other churches or Baptist groups.

THE GREATEST TEACHER I HAVE KNOWN

By DICK H. HALL, JR.

Pastor, First Baptist Church
Decatur, Georgia

Miss Hattie impressed me as a little child because of the complete radiance of her spirit. I did not know then that Mrs. John Neely—that was her full name—had only been to school five days in her life. Neither did I know then that it was my own mother and some other good women who made an agreement to win her to Christ and were successful.

Her husband was a driver of an ox team logging in the "bottoms" for a lumber mill operated by my father and his brother. John Neely was a drunkard at that time, and he told me in later years that often he would come in with his team too drunk to go home to supper. Instinctively he would feed his team and then crawl into the trough, and the steers would muzzle him around to get the corn.

Through it all, Miss Hattie maintained her radiant cheerfulness and her complete faith that "John would be a Christian, because God promises to answer prayer."

Miss Hattie began by asking the Lord to let her learn to read so that she might know the Bible. Today she can quote more Scripture than any person of my acquaintance, preacher or otherwise. She asked the Lord for help in learning to play so that she might organize a Sunday school. With a little reed organ in her home down at the mill she practiced until she could lead the hymns.

She organized a Sunday school for the mill children out under the trees in the mill village in the deep woods. This went along until the mill was moved to New Albany, Miss., about 1913.

Living a mile below town, she organized another Sunday school under the trees. Before long my mother and some others helped to erect a small building known as Neely's Chapel. Today Neely's Chapel Baptist Church is a modern brick structure with a full denominational program.

About 1912 John Neely was gloriously converted. The doctors told him that he would have to quit drinking gradually or it would kill him, but he vowed that he was going to quit regardless. "I am going to die sober," he declared. He became a deacon in the First Baptist Church at New Albany, Mississippi, and lived to become one of the most beloved and honored men of that county.

Eternity alone will evaluate the part that Miss Hattie has had in my ministry. She has told me that never has a day gone by Miss Hattie, her Bible and Sunday School quarterly in hand, stands at the entrance of the church named after her where she still greets men and women who are hungry for the Word of life.

$40,000 Check To Aid Clarke College Program

Clarke Memorial College. Dr. John F. Carter, Dean and Acting President, and Rev. A. H. Miller, Business Manager, are all smiles these days due to the receipt of a check for $40,000 which was allotted the college from the Capital Needs division of the 1953-54 Cooperative Program of Mississippi Baptists.

According to Dr. Carter, the $40,000 accruing to Clarke College will enable that institution to complete its gymnasium and to erect other badly needed buildings.

Other institutions benefiting from the Capital Needs appropriations are: William Carey, $20,000; Baptist Hospital, $30,000; Blue Mountain College, $30,000; and Mississippi College, $30,000.

since I surrendered to preach that she has not prayed for me.

I think she is the greatest teacher that I know because of the length of her spiritual advance, the breadth of her influence for good, the depth of her Christian character, and the height of her faith.

She would be the last ever to think of herself as being great in any way, but her devotion, her humility, her unwavering determination to serve God, and her beauty of soul set her apart in my thinking as fulfilling all the requirements of Christian greatness.

Bible 'Book-of-the-Month' Club A Hit

Spartanburg, S. C. —(RNS)—
Dr. John L. Slaughter, pastor of First Baptist church here, has had what he describes as "electrifying" results with a "book-of-the-month" club in his church.

Dr. Slaughter picks a book of the Bible for each month and asks his congregation to read it all during the month. For one evening service he preaches on the "book of the month." Attendance at this service always exceeds that of other evening services.

The pastor believes that more Bible reading is necessary for his congregation to fully appreciate his sermons.

He also has utilized other Bible reading promotions. One of these was to have members read through the Bible using a schedule for the whole year. Another was to ask them to read once a day for seven days a particular chapter for each week in the year.

But by far the most successful has been the "book of the month" idea.

In this "home dedicated to mis-ed that on the mission field the home is more important than ever because so much of the activity of the children is centered there. But now that the Cautious are living building of a Christian home one of their most important tasks.

You Made It We Recorded It

On other pages of this issue will be found the record of the gifts of the churches for the past Convention year (November 1, 1953-November 2, 1954). The list is arranged by associations because records are kept that way in the Convention Board Office. Find your association and you can easily locate your own church record.

We would remind every Mississippi Baptist that this is THEIR record, not the record of the Convention Board nor of the Baptist Record. You and your church made it, the Convention Board Bookkeeping Department simply recorded what YOU sent.

These figures, the largest in Mississippi Baptist history, give us a picture of Mississippi Baptist work for the past Convention year. It should thrill those who helped make it and chill those who stood on the side lines and did nothing.

To those individuals and churches who had a part, our congratulations. To those who have failed themselves, their church, and their Lord, our sympathy.

Of the 1,712 churches in the Mississippi Baptist Convention, 1,587 made a contribution through the Cooperative Program. Sixteen hundred and forty-one contributed either through the Cooperative Program or to some designated object. We hope the churches that gave nothing to the great worldwide work of Mississippi Baptists will do better during the present year. We also wonder how they feel as they sing, "We've A Story To Tell To The Nations."

And we still believe that every church will do something if the matter is presented by someone. We urge every pastor, Sunday School Superintendent, W. M. U. President, Brotherhood President, or any other member to see that the people have an opportunity. Won't you be that someone?

Congratulations to Secretary-Treasurer Quarles, who has led Mississippi Baptists in such a marvelous manner—both spiritually and financially. And with God's guidance and the cooperation of Mississippi Baptists he should lead us to greater heights and an even better record during the coming year.

Give 'Til It Helps

"How long? How long must we wait?" The cry comes from all over the world, from people waiting for the news of the Saviour who was born to bring peace and good will to earth.

As to Paul the cry came, "Come over into Macedonia and help us," the cry comes to all Christians of today. From Africa we hear, "Send us more missionaries and doctors and nurses. There are thousands of villages where no one has ever heard of Jesus." More schools and churches are needed in South America. A woman in China says, "I am so glad I have found Jesus Christ and eternal life, but why did you not come sooner? Why did you not come in time to tell my mother the glad news?" Religious literature, missionaries salaries, education for missionaries' children, radio programs, automobiles for missionaries, new church buildings, youth centers, medical centers, for Korea, for Hawaii, for Japan, for Israel, for Spain. All these and more are needed if we are even to begin to win the world for Christ.

"Christ for the whole wide world! Our task has just begun, For millions wait in every land The message of God's son. Shall they be left in sin To die without His Word Without the Saviour Jesus Christ Because they never heard?"

Let each of us give to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering next week (November 29-December 3) MORE than we are able. Let us give until our heart is warmed in the knowledge that we are giving what Jesus would have us to give. He gave even His own life. Many of his messengers have given their lives in the cause of spreading the gospel. Lottie Moon, the missionary for whom the WMU Week of Prayer and special Christmas offering is named, willingly gave the most of her life to the people of China and for the cause of Christ.

Miss Moon wrote: "It is not the festive season, when families and friends exchange gifts in memory of the Gift laid on the altar of the world for the redemption of the human race, the most appropriate time to consecrate a portion from both abounding riches and scant poverty to send forth the good tidings of great joy to all the earth?"

The first Lottie Moon offering was received in 1888 and amounted to a little more than $3,000.

The Southwide goal this year is $3,000,000 and the Mississippi goal is $165,000.

Let us give 'til it helps.

The Record Helps Hold Those Students

Thousands of Baptist boys and girls, some of them for the first time, have recently gone away to various schools and colleges. They are going to be in a strange environment and many times will get homesick and countless will be the times they will think about things back home.

One good way to help them over these difficult periods is to send them the Baptist Record.

Most issues will contain items about churches or people that they know and there is no better tonic than the Baptist Record.

Many churches over the state make it a practice to add the names of their boys and girls who have gone away to the local EVERY FAMILY list. We urge all churches to do likewise. The cost is only 8 1-3 cents per name per month. But the value of the Record is many times the small cost.

Thanks, Associations

The annual association season has come to an end. Baptists from one end of Mississippi to the other have gathered and checked on their last year's accomplishments and made plans for next year's victory.

Of course, no one man could attend all of them. We attended as many as our editorial duties would permit. There seems to be an increased interest over the state if attendance is an indicator.

We were cordially received in all the associations. Some associations gave more time than others, but some associations had more time than others.

For ourselves, and we feel that we speak for all the state workers, we are grateful for all the kindness and courtesy of all the associations. The moderators were gracious, the members courteous, the fellowship fine, and the food fit for a king.

We shall miss the meetings and the fellowship, but we will be looking forward to next fall and more good food and good fellowship.

Columbia, Mississippi,

Dear Editor:

I do know the Baptist Record is the best paper I have a chance to read.

Could hardly wait for the Record of Baptist State Convention issue to come. Have read it from front to back and this is the best of all the issues of your great paper.

Would like to add my testimony about the New Chain Reference Bible, same as the late Dr. F. M. McConnell's idea of it. I have learned more Scripture from it in the 15 years of study than I knew after trying to teach Sunday School class for 20 years before.

Yours in Christ,
MRS. EMMA B. SWANSON.

FOR MANY OCCASIONS by Ernest K. Emurian (W. A. Wilde, Boston, Massachusetts, $2.50) is a collection of ten non-royalty plays and pageants for church and school and general use. Several histories of songs are presented, including "Home, Sweet Home," "The Star-Spangled Banner," "Yankee Doodle," "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and "The Church in the Wildwood." The writing of the Declaration of Independence is recreated in "God of Our Fathers." Forgotten incidents in our nation's history as well as in church history are re-lived in these plays. GOD'S WORLD PLAN (Broadman Press, Nashville, Tennessee) is a missionary study of the Bible written by Mrs. A. L. Aulick in the language of teen-agers. It studies in particular the passages in the Bible in which the missionary message is most predominant. Mrs. Aulick discusses knowing God's plan, His plan in Old Testament history, in praise and prophecy, in the life and work of Jesus, revealed by the words of Jesus, as carried out by Paul and other witnesses, as carried out in strategic places, and God's plan victorious. The writer says that the purpose of the study is "to awaken in the hearts of young people the realization that Christ is the Saviour of all mankind and to lead them to invest their lives in an effort to make the gospel known to the uttermost part of the earth." Dec. 26 To Be Student Night

The Christmas season will bring students from college and university campuses all over the Southern Baptist Convention back to their home churches. In these churches, Student Night at Christmas has become a highlight during the holidays. This year, Sunday, Dec. 26, has been designated for the annual program according to an announcement from Charles Horner, state student secretary. Mr. Horner urged pastors in Mississippi to show appreciation of their college students by sharing Christmas activities in their churches with a Student Night at Christmas program.

This special program gives students an opportunity to tell their spiritual experiences and college life. Local churches also become acquainted with the Baptist Student Union. The experiences students relate during the program are demonstrations of BSU—the connecting link between campus and church—promoting the Christian way of life in college, placing emphasis on Sunday school, Training Union, and other church organizations and activities.

Material for Student Night at Christmas has been mailed to every church and college campus in the state. Included in the packet is the program brochure containing suggested outline for the evening service, and brief information on the entire BSU program for the year.

The program may be adapted for one student or for as many as twenty, not including ushers, musicians, etc. Participation in the service includes high school and college students, nurses, medical, and other professional students. Many churches which do not have students away in school present the program for inspiration and orientation to those who will be enrolled during the next year.

Pamphlets and additional information concerning the year-round BSU program may be had from the Student Department, P. O. Box 530, Jackson, Miss.

College students appreciate this opportunity to share their spiritual experiences with their home church. Share your Christmas activities with them during the Student Night at Christmas program.

Ann and Adoniram Judson Portrayed on "Cavalcade of America" on WJTV, 25 Sunday Night, Dec. 5

"An Ordeal in Burma" as experienced by a husband and wife, medical missionary team in 1824, is dramatized on Cavalcade of America, Sunday, December 5 at 9:30 p. m., over WJTV, Channel 25 in Jackson.

Toni Gerry and Donal Murphy are starred as Ann and Adoniram Judson, and Richard Loo, well known character actor, is featured as the Burmese governor.

Burma, in 1824, is a land steeped in Oriental tradition. In Eva, capital of Burma, the Judsons, the only Americans in the country, teach Christianity to the people by attending them with medicines which arrive sporadically from America. When a war begins between the Burmese and the British, the Judson home is ransacked by British soldiers. Adoniram accused of being a British spy, is jailed and later sentenced to death.

In a last ditch attempt to save her husband through a direct plea to the Burmese emperor, Ann meets his mother, the former queen, to whom she tells her story. Judson is sent to negotiate a peace between the opposing armies and Burma is once again open to American missionary ideals and Christian teachings.

T. D. Sumrall Preaches Son's Ordination Sermon

REV. TOM D. SUMRALL

In a very impressive service Sunday afternoon in East McComb Baptist Church, Rev. Tom D. Sumrall, son of Rev. and Mrs. T. D. Sumrall, was ordained to the gospel ministry.

This ordination was in response to a request of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church where Tom had recently been called as pastor.

The service was unique in that the father of the candidate was requested to preach the ordination sermon. He was assisted by Dr. Wyatt R. Hunter who read the scripture and offered prayer.

Rev. Gordon Shamburger served as clerk.

Following the message Rev. Robert Hughes led in the ordination prayer. After the laying on of hands by all ministers present and the deacons of this and other Baptist churches, the Bible was presented by Dr. Cecil Randall.

Rev. Howard Brister, Jr., closed the service with prayer.

Studying At Seminary

Tom is a graduate of Louisiana College, where he majored in Bible and is now a student of the New Orleans Seminary.

Other ministers who were present for the service were: Rev. Marcus Smith, pastor of Locust Street Church, Rev. W. E. Corkern, pastor of North McComb Church; Rev. C. F. Barnes, pastor of South McComb Church, and Rev. Howard Brister, Jr., associate pastor of the Friendship Church.

PROGRESS REPORTED AT OAK GROVE CHURCH

November completes two years that Rev. Volle Scott has been pastor of Oak Grove Church in Holmes County. We have added to our church four Sunday School rooms and placed lights and heaters in these rooms and Mrs. Frank Spencer has painted the Beginners room.

The Sunday School has grown from a membership in the twenties to 49.

A weekly prayer meeting was started and has grown from eight to 20 members.

At the beginning of this quarter a BTU was started.

Last Sunday three were baptized.

Plans are being made to add two more Sunday School rooms in the near future.

Raymond Cline Goes To Prichard, Ala.

Raymond L. Cline, educational director at First Church, Biloxi, has resigned to accept a similar position with the First Church, Prichard, Ala.

Since his coming to Biloxi two years ago the Sunday School has again attained the Standard of Excellence, the school faculty has been trained to a greater degree than before and the number of departments increased.

As superintendent of Gulf Coast Sunday School Association he revived that organization and maintained regular meetings for the inspiration of Sunday School workers. The best wishes of a host of friends go with Mr. Cline, Doris

Man Of Distinction

We nominate this week as the "man of distinction" (as per the ads which the liquor industry run setting forth the idea that liquor has something to do with making "men of distinction") Victor Lively, who admitted the slaying of a teen-age girl in an Indianapolis hotel.

Officers said Lively told them he became enraged when the girl protested about his drinking and that he choked her "three or four minutes until she was dead."

Lively said that he had been drinking and continued to drink in the hotel room. He further stated that after the slaying he sat in a chair and drank gin more than five hours.

Sparks & Splinters

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Glaze, Jr., Southern Baptist missionary appointees to Argentina announce the birth of Michael Stephen on November 19 in Greenwood, S. C. Their address is 6 B Glenhaven Circle, Greenwood. Mr. Glaze is a native of D'Lo, and he and Mrs. Glaze make their permanent American home in Pelahatchee.

Recently a lady sent us a subscription and indicated that it was a birthday gift. The Baptist Record commends this idea to all of its subscribers. Anybody having a birthday in December would appreciate having the Baptist Record sent to them as a present and the Baptist Record would appreciate sending it. And it would help in reaching the $6,000 mark which is the goal by Christmas.

The Baptist Record wants to commend the plan used by Miss Susan E. Campbell, who lives in New York City. Recently she sent a check for $3 for a two-year subscription. The idea was that she didn't want to be bothered about renewing every year and so she sent enough money for a two-year subscription.

Sam D. Allen, Director of Music of First Church, Wichita, Kansas, has entered the full-time field as an evangelistic singer. Dr. C. E. Matthews, Director of Evangelism for the Home Mission Board, writes that "I know of no living man that can stir the hearts of people in song and prepare the congregations for the preaching of the gospel better than Brother Allen." His address is 315 North Broadway Avenue, Wichita, 2, Kansas.

The new chapel of Robinson Street Church, Jackson, will be dedicated on Sunday night, December 5, at 7:30 p. m. The dedicatory address will be delivered by Dr. Harry L. Spencer, Mississippi Baptist Foundation Secretary. Open house will be held from 3 to 5 p. m. and the public is invited. The church is also celebrating its fourth anniversary. Rev. Leonard Holloway, the church's only pastor, will also be celebrating his fourth anniversary as pastor.

NEW ORLEANS, La. (BP)—One hundred new student apartments costing $840,000 will be constructed on the campus of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, Roland Q. Leavell, president, announced.

The apartments will be of the two-bedroom type and will more than double the housing available to student families. Construction will be completed by fall, 1955.

Among the recent visitors in the Baptist Building were: G. G. Childers, Bovina; J. Harold Jones, Vicksburg; Mrs. W. L. Hardin, Jackson; Mrs. L. L. Jordan, Jackson; Mrs. W. E. Corkern, McComb; Mrs. H. P. Porter, Brookhaven; Mrs. W. B. Barnes, Jr., Columbia; Mrs. Bill Autry, Columbia.

The Baptist Record appreciates a nice list of new and renewal subscriptions from Enon Church in Clay County. The list was sent by Mrs. J. E. Edwards, Clerk and Treasurer of the church.

Rev. Silas Johnson, pastor of Plantersville Church, will do the preaching for the revival at Riverview Gardens Church, St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 29-Dec. 12. Rev. Floyd V. Sams is pastor.

The Baptist Record appreciates a nice list of subscriptions from the Union Church in Lincoln county. Rev. Landreth Murphee is the pastor. The list was sent by Mrs. Walker Boyte.

Seventeen new congregations, a gain of 15 per cent, were received into membership of the Kansas State Baptist Convention at its annual meeting at Hutchinson. Southern Baptist churches in the Kansas Convention now number 115. Howard Whatley, pastor of the First Southern Baptist Church, Hutchinson, was elected president.

The Baptist Record appreciates a nice list of new and renewal subscriptions from Carpenter Church in Copiah County. Dr. L. Bracey Campbell is the pastor. The check was sent by Robert Little, Sr.

POINTS FOR EMPHASIS for 1955 (thirty-eighth annual volume) is a pocket commentary on the International Bible Lessons for Christian teaching, uniform series. Written by Dr. Clifton J. Allen and published by the Broadman Press, Nashville, Tennessee, it is a valuable help to Sunday School teachers. Its features include an introduction to each lesson, the Scripture passage quoted and explained, "Truths to Live By"—the lesson applied to life, "A Verse to Remember," and the Daily Bible Readings for each week. Maps of Palestine and the Bible lands are also contained in the attractively bound little book. Order from the Baptist Book Store or from the publisher, ($75). Says Dr. Allen in the preface: "Nothing matters so much as the discovery of what the Bible has to say about the way of salvation, the demand for morality, the hope for world order, and the certainty of Christian victory."

This government seal, placed on the door of the Second Baptist Church, Madrid, Spain, on July 17, officially closed the church. At the time these lines are being written (November 15) all efforts to get the church reopened have seemingly been futile. The words above the door are from Psalm 100:4: "Enter into his gates with thanksgiving."

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (BSSB)—Richard E. Kornmeyer is the new supervisor, books and Bible section, Merchandise Selection Department, Baptist Sunday School Board. He came to the Board in 1951 as an associate in the Audio-Visual Aids Department. He was a visual aids worker in the Louisville Baptist Book Store three years and a chaplain's assistant in the army four years. He is a graduate of Georgetown, Ky., College, and attended Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

PLAYLETS AND POEMS FOR CHURCH SCHOOL by Flora E. Breck (W. A. Wilde Company, Boston, Massachusetts, $1.50) contains recitations, poems, dialogues, and prayers for use with small children in church school or for special days and programs in Sunday School. There are selections for use at Christmas, Easter, Palm Sunday, and similar occasions. Order from the Baptist Book Store or from the publisher.

Runnelstown Is Back

Due to local conditions Runnelstown, a few months ago, discontinued the EVERY FAMILY Plan of the Baptist Record. However, having had a taste of being informed Baptists, the people decided they wanted to keep on being informed and have now instructed that the Baptist Record be continued to the members of Runnelstown Church.

Rev. W. T. Johnson is the pastor. Record readers in Perry County are now listed as follows: Bethel, 2; ARLINGTON, 22; BEAUMONT, 70; BREWER, 29; INDIAN SPRINGS, 26; JANICE, 31; KENSINGTON, 26; JANICE, 31; KENNEDY MEMORIAL, 27; NEW AUGUSTA, 60; RICHTON, 101; RUNNELSTOWN, 85; Seminary, 15; UNION, 36.

Union In Kemper Sends List

The free trial plan continues to bear fruit. One of the latest churches to have the Baptist Record on trial and then to adopt the EVERY FAMILY Plan is Union Church in Kemper County.

The pastor is Rev. W. M. Etheridge of Jackson.

A few weeks ago they asked that the Record be sent on trial and the result was the usual one—they adopted the Baptist Record as a part of the church program.

Record readers in Kemper County are now listed as follows:

BAY SPRINGS 33, BLACKWATER 30, Bluff Springs 17, CENTER RIDGE 23, Corinth 1, DEKALB 60, Liberty 6, SALEM 45, SCOOBA 51, UNION 19, Wahalak 15, WEST KEMPER 23.

Robinson Street, Jackson

While Pastor Leonard Holloway of Robinson Street Church, Jackson, was taking some of his unused vacation we had the privilege of supplying for him.

The auditorium was full at the morning service and comfortably filled for the evening service.

It was like homecoming for us, as we saw people whom we had known during our Pontotoc pastorate 20 years ago and others that we had encountered as students at Mississippi College, some even rooming in our home.

The church owns sufficient ground on which to erect sufficient facilities for this fast growing church.

The Educational Department has already been erected and is a joy to behold. It is modernistic in design.

Record readers in Hinds county are now listed as follows: BETHESDA, 46; BROWNSVILLE (BEULAH), 57; BOLTON, 34; BYRAM, 84; CHAPEL HILL, 30; CLINTON, 329; EDWARDS, 66; ELRAINE, 77; JACKSON, ALTA WOODS, 282; CALVARY, 1450; DANIEL MEMORIAL, 585; CRESTWOOD, 202; EMMANUEL, 66; FIRST, 1306; GRIFFITH MEMORIAL, 193; NORTHSIDE, 423; PARKWAY, 858; ROBINSON STREET, 125; VAN WINKLE, 374; SOUTHSIDE, 347; WEST, 193; TEMPLE,

MISCELLANEA

Mississippi State, perhaps others, had a Thanksgiving banquet for overseas students with State Faculty Adviser, Dr. Tony Sorenson, as Toastmaster; new Starkville pastor, Rev. D. C. Applegate, as speaker.

Home pastors, please let us know if you haven't received your Student Night at Christmas materials. Many of our churches will observe this year.

Ole Miss has a Freshman Council for the year. The BSU paper, Dixie Deacon, looks good. Also BSU Handbook, blotter inviting students to First Church, Oxford.

Even though Thanksgiving Day has passed, it's not too late to be thankful. Think of the Gift of Christmas.

Rev. Guy Reedy, Ruleville, spoke at Delta State BSU not long ago. Chester Swor was R.E.W. speaker. BSU bus seems near.

The Integrator is name of Mississippi Southern's new BSU paper. Good name and attractive sheet. Pearl River Junior has both a BSU Choir and a dramatic group which are performing on and off the campus.

East Central Junior's good BSU paper is The Spirit of BSU. One joined Decatur Church recently.

We rejoice in the fine BSU work being done at Jackson College under the direction of Frederick Brown, BSU Secretary.

William Carey's goal of $2,000 for the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions is marvelous.

Perkinson Junior lists 91 unsaved students; Holmes Junior, 25; Mississippi College, 9; Co-Lin Junior, 16; Jones Junior, 25; Southwest Junior, 8. What a challenge and opportunity!

Holmes Junior's R.E.W., with Rev. Russell McIntire, was a great blessing to the campus.

At Mississippi College, 441 students recently participated in mission trips, resulting in 21 professions of faith.

CONVENTION starts tomorrow at First Church, Hattiesburg. Don't forget to pray!!

Executive Committee Meeting Greene Association

Rev. Mack Jones recently called a meeting of the newly elected officers of the Associational Training Union of Greene Association. The meeting was held at Cedar Grove Baptist Church near Leakesville. Every associational officer was present except the Nursery Leader who has not yet been elected. Plans were discussed for the "M" Night meeting on December 6 and the general program of associational work was outlined.

It is recommended that all associational Training Union Directors, particularly the new ones, hold an executive meeting and also plan an officers and leaders council and a quarterly mass meeting for each quarter of the year. Reports of these meetings should be mailed to the Training Union Department, P. O. Box 530, Jackson for use in the Baptist Record.

ARTHRITIS

If you are one of those sufferers who has tried "everything" without results, I would like to hear from you, as I was a one-time chronic sufferer and understand your problem. You will be delighted with the FREE information awaiting you regarding a wonderfully effective SYMPTOMATIC HOME TREATMENT PLAN which is now available. Several thousand letters of appreciation already in hand from past sufferers. Not a patent medicine. Write today: W. J. Pietsch, P. O. Box 2308, Asheville, N. C.

The book that many of you have been longing for and asking about, will be off the press on or before December 15th, 1954. The title of the book is, "Through the Valley." The six chapters are based on the six verses of the 23rd Psalm. The book is full of stories of human interest about the life and works of Rev. Dan Moulder, a Baptist preacher going through the valley for 56 years. You will laugh and cry, when you read the many experiences of Brother Moulder, from the Mississippi Hollows to Heaven. The last chapter tells of the re-joining in Heaven upon his arrival, and how God crowned Brother Moulder beyond the valley.

Dr. J. B. Lawrence, Secretary Emeritus of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board and author of many books read the manuscript and wrote the author these words, "The manuscript was so interesting and informing that I read it through without stopping. The experiences of Brother Moulder will be interesting to all those who read them."

The price of the book is $2.00. Get your mail order in today to the Author, Rev. Chester Moulder, Hardy Street, Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

Rev. Charles Clark To Pastor Palestine Church

REV. CHARLES W. CLARK

Rev. Charles W. Clark has been called by the Palestine Church in Hinds Association to serve as pastor.

He recently served as assistant pastor and minister of music at Byram Church. He was ordained by New Hope Church in Marion County at the request of Beech Springs Church, where he was serving as pastor.

Palestine is next to the oldest church in Hinds Association having been constituted in 1829. The church is located about 5 miles south of Raymond.

Fisher Of Men Weekly Helps Miss. Pastor

Dear Bro. Cullom:
When I gave you ten subscriptions to Fisher of Men last summer at Camp Garaywa I did not realize what it would do for my people.

Many have won souls who never thought they could, and it has certainly helped me. We pass them around among the members and the people are eager to get them. If our church continues to grow like it has lately, I hope to put your paper in our church budget as a regular item.

I have shown it to several pastors at the N. O. Baptist Seminary, where I am in school, and each has seemed impressed with it. I recommend F. O. M. very highly as a paper that challenges us to do more personal witnessing.

Yours in Christ,
Rev. Olyn Roberts, Louisville, Miss.

Fisher of Men is the only exclusively personal evangelism weekly and is edited by Rev. Peter Cullom, a former Mississippian. In less than two years this paper has found its way into 46 of the 48 states and eight foreign countries.

Order direct. Address Editor, F. O. M. Box 361, Washington 4, D. C. Price two dollars per year. It makes an excellent Christmas present. (Adv.)

The Baptist Record appreciates a copy of the minutes of the Yalobusha County Association which met in 34th annual session at Haven Hill Church on October 7, 1954. The next session will be held with Sylva Rena and Big Springs Churches.

CHANGES AT NASHVILLE

These changes have been made recently at Nashville in the Sunday School Board personnel:

Herman L. King is now superintendent of Sunday School Administration, in the Sunday School Department, going to that place from the superintendency of Adult work. Ralph Longshore has changed from the place of associational promotion to that of Adult work, and Dr. Stanley Williamson is the new leader of associational work, going there from the Intermediate work.

The new Cradle Roll superintendent, upon the retirement of Mrs. Blankinship, is Miss Hannah Brummitt, of North Carolina.

Mr. King, Mr. Longshore and Dr. Williamson are new workers at the Board, but have changed places of service. Miss Brummitt is a new worker there.

We wish for each of these the greatest success in these places of service. The new Intermediate superintendent will be chosen soon.

THE BOARD'S CONTRIBUTION

It is well nigh impossible for any one to realize the tremendous contribution the Baptist Sunday School Board makes each year to the work of Southern Baptists, in the extension of Christ's work around the world.

We had the privilege last December of looking in on the department that ships out the literature for the Sunday School and Training Union departments, and while they actually were in the work of mailing out these periodicals.

It was simply amazing, stupendous! We could scarcely believe our eyes. We thought again, as we watched the process, of what good will come to literally millions of people who will read and study all those different pieces of good literature.

We thank God for our Baptist Sunday School Board, with all its personnel. May the days ahead be even greater ones for good than those of the past.

The Baptist Record appreciates a copy of the minutes of the Jasper County Association which met in fifty-first annual session with the Bay Springs Church on September 21 and 22, 1954. The next meeting is to be held with the Fair Ridge Church, Stringer, on September 20 and 21, 1955. Rev. L. B. Simmons, Newton, will preach the sermon. Rev. J. W. McGrew, Vossburg, is the alternate. The minutes are attractively prepared and printed.

USE DECEMBER DEFINITELY

It hardly seems possible that we are now in the last month of the first quarter of this year, but such is the case. It seems only yesterday that this year began.

But, since it is true that we are now in December, let's use it to the best possible advantage for helping in the new calendar year.

One of the great items for December planning is the January Bible Study Week. That has come to be a most challenging and helpful part of our program each year.

The idea here is for each church to have a week of special Bible study during January, preferably the first full week in January. This is for all the family, coming each night that week to the church for this special study.

So, make definite and final plans in December for this week of study in January.

HEBREWS IS THE BOOK

The suggested book of the Bible for study in January this time is Hebrews. Dr. H. H. Hobbs, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Oklahoma City, has proposed a guide book for use in that study. These may be secured from the Baptist Book Store, Jackson, Miss.

Get them early and be sure to have them when you want them.

Blue Mountain, Miss., Nov. 24—Mrs. Vernon May, Tyrone, Ark., has donated $500 to the living endowment fund of Blue Mountain College as a memorial to her mother, Mrs. J. H. Prestidge Sr. Mrs. May graduated from Blue Mountain in the class of 1934.

The Baptist Record appreciates a nice list of new and renewal subscriptions from the Longtown Church. The list was sent by Mrs. U. E. Walters.

A CRY OUT OF THE DEPTHS.

Bible Texts: Psalms 130:1-8; 86:1-5, 11-13.

I. WHEREIN THERE IS A VAST DIFFERENCE AMONG PEOPLE.

This is their consciousness of sin. This consciousness is, of course, an emotion, and there is such a difference among people in the feeling and expression of the emotions.

There are people who maintain a stoical or phlegmatic attitude under almost any and all circumstances. Such people never weep, never or seldom laugh, being neither ever very sad or ever very glad, apparently feeling within a narrow margin. This attitude of apparent indifference may be genuine indifference, or it may be controlled feeling, not insensibility to varying situations, but a bridled expression of a keen sensibility.

A study of character as revealed by the expression of the feelings of men might be and is a very revealing occupation for one who wishes to understand men. To study the emotions of great and heroic souls in great and arduous affairs is a useful and pleasant employment; but that mind only is truly great and superior to the shifting fortunes of the world, which does in the most confiding and placid manner and in the completest measure submit itself to God, learning the comforting truth in the words, "Casting all thy care upon him, for he careth for thee," and learning in that faithful commitment to abide serene amid all the strain and stress of life.

The author of the words of this prayer had learned and anew was learning that tremendous truth. "Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Jehovah," and therein is expressed an action which is past and also repeated, as one should say, "I have cried, and, behold, I cry again." A strong man is uttering his insistent request for help into the ears of One in Whom he is persuaded there is help for all his need.

II. THE HEART OF AND SOUL OF THE NEED FROM WHICH THIS PETITIONER SUFFERS.

"Lord, hear my voice; Let thine ear be attentive to the voice of my supplication." Just grant me the great boon of a hearing; listen to me, only let me make clear to thee my deep distress, let me lay bare to thee my dire need. Just let me come close to thee and be sure that thou dost hear me. I am lonely when I feel myself utterly removed from the presence of One who may lend an attentive ear to call of my deep distress. I cannot bear my burdens alone; I cannot keep my courage in the abysmal depths of this more than stygian darkness unless there is a kindly ear to hear my humble cry out of the darkness which surrounds me. I need thy help, the girding of thy strength, the might of thine almighty arm, but first of all, O Lord, I want thy sympathetic ear.

Just let my loneliness find relief in the knowledge that thou dost hear me when my troubles, so many, wrench from my heart the cry of mine anguish. The strong bars of a prison door shut me in from my earthly helpers and my friends, Come, thou, O Lord, and share my dungeon and the narrow walls of it will stretch away into the walls of a stately castle and the barred door of my cell will become portcullis and drawbridge that shall shut me into safety from the raging of the foe.

The prayer of the lonely, is not so very much for the help a gracious God may give as it is for the presence, the felt presence, the gloriously experienced presence of the living God Himself.

III. THE GOD OF MERCY IS THE GOD TO BE FEARED.

"If thou, Jehovah, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?" Who indeed! Not one sane person who looks upon these words but knows that his heart is desperately wicked and full of guile, sinful in its every wish and way. "There is forgiveness with thee, That thou mayest be feared."

How shall I praise Him worthily, the God Who forgives! Had He cut me off when I first deserved that fate, I would not have lived to my middle "teens." And since then, how many a single act of my maturer life merited death at the hands of Justice; but thanks to Him, divine justice is divine justice tempered and held in leash by divine compassion and divine mercy. Oh, may I not say, "He is Mercy swathed and enmeshed in love." In the course of even-handed justice untempered by divine mercy, not one of us would see salvation.

But because the Judge of all the earth is merciful, sinful men may look in trembling penitence to Him and in His mercy find forgiveness. Forgiveness is given on condition that the heart of the sinner be earnest in its petition for forgiveness and eager to turn from its wickedness and walk in the path made bright by the light of His eye.

This God of the merciful heart is the God who is to be greatly feared. Brief days ago a good jurymen told me of the judge who said to the man who had been found guilty of crime, "I am suspending your sentence now, but I warn you not to come before me again; for, if you do, I am going to remember that your promises of amendment were not sincere." I would not think of comparing any earthly judge with the heavenly Judge; but this I do feel I can say. The judge of the compassionate and merciful heart is the one in all the earth who knows when the heart is rebellious against all His righteous and lacking in submission to all His righteous will. To rebel against Him is to seal with unholy hand the bond of one's own condemnation, and to lift up the heel in impious rebellion against His righteous rule is to kick shut the door that dooms him to the pit of dark damnation.

To say what I now have said is to assert nothing in anywise different from the truth as it is in all the fine things upon the earth. What man so brutish as not to fear, with a good and wholesome fear, the wrath of a pure and holy love outraged by infidelity of its object? What man will not fear to Joel Ray, studies "Ambassador Life" with W. R. Roberts, Brotherhood Secretary, Jo Summers and Mrs. Joel Ray, office secretaries in new Royal Ambassador office in Brotherhood Department.

Following the Southern Baptist Convention action, the Mississippi WMU Board and the Mississippi Baptist Convention Board recommended that the promotion of Royal Ambassadors be transferred to the Brotherhood.

In anticipation of formal approval by the State Convention, State Royal Ambassador Secretary Joel Ray moved his office from the WMU offices to the Brotherhood Department offices in the Baptist Building. The office was moved November 1.

Mississippi thus became the first state to follow the Southern Baptist Convention pattern according to information from the Brotherhood Commission office in Memphis.

From its birth of 1908 until November 1 of this year Royal Ambassadors were sponsored solely by Woman's Missionary Union. The Baptist Record in August 1908 explains the purpose of this new Royal Ambassador organization. The work was first under the direction of the WMU Sunbeam Leader. When the position of Young People's Secretary came into being, Royal Ambassadors was supervised by her.

IV. THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE OF THE FORGIVEN.

The confidence of the suppliant grows bold in the 86th psalm. He cries to the Lord for mercy and knows that the Lord will grant it, because his cry is the supplication of a sincere heart, and because of that knowledge, he knows that his Lord will rejoice the suppliant's heart. He assures himself again that the Lord is abundant unto all them that call upon Him. And now in order that he may not sin against his Lord, the suppliant prays that his Lord teach him the truth and guide him in the right way: "I will walk in thy truth; Unite my heart to fear thy name." And again, "I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart; and I will glorify thy name forevermore."

Praise and gladness are the fruit of the forgiven heart. His are the people who praise Him, His are the people who have cause to rejoice in the people who give glory to His name.

Convention Relief Committee In Need Of Additional Funds

The Relief Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, meeting in Richmond, Va., this week, appropriated $65,070 for overseas relief needs, leaving less than $17,000 of relief funds on hand.

Thus, Dr. George W. Sadler, chairman of the committee, said an appeal would be made to Southern Baptists to step up their giving for relief that the continuing distress in Europe and the Far East, especially, might be lessened. The need in Germany exists largely because refugees are pouring out of East Germany; and the extreme needs in the Orient are due to the fact that many people have been left helpless and orphaned by Communism, war, and other tragedies.

In the appropriations made last week, not more than half of the requests for relief funds could be met due to the lack of funds; and Dr. Sadler said other projects should be undertaken.

(Money for relief in areas where Southern Baptist missionaries work should be sent to the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board, P. O. Box 5148, Richmond 20, Va. Mark it clearly for relief.)

Of the $65,070 earmarked by the committee, $19,750 will go toward the erection of new church, buildings in Germany.

Southern Baptists have been helping German Baptists in their rehabilitation program since 1950; and to date financial aid has been given to 44 churches for their building projects. In addition, help has been extended to the Baptist seminary in Hamburg, the Oncken Publishing House in Kassel, the Deaconess Homes in Berlin and Stuttgart, the polio hospital in Berlin, youth and student work, and a Boys' Home in Berlin.

At the meeting this week the committee marked $5,000 for alterations at the Boys' Home in Berlin.

A fellowship gift of $3,000 was made to Canadian Baptists toward the erection of a church building in St. John's, Newfoundland.

Attention was called to the church building project in St. John's in a letter from the general secretary-treasurer of the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec to Dr. Porter Routh, executive secretary-treasurer of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention. The letter was referred to the Foreign Mission Board after conference with Dr. J. W. Storer, president of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Five thousand dollars was appropriated for rehabilitation work among the Mau Mau people of Kenya, East Africa. Southern Baptists have no established work in East Africa; but representatives of the Foreign Mission Board have recommended that Kenya and Tanganyika be entered as soon as personnel is available.

The money appropriated by the committee this week would be used in one of the native "locations" of Nairobi. "The purpose is to give a new hope and outlook to the principal tribe of Kenya, the Kikuyus, now suffering from a terrible tribal neurosis," Dr. Sadler said. "The authorities first thought the trouble in Kenya was political, then they thought it was economic, now finally it is agreed that it is a spiritual matter. We have got to do something to touch the spirits of these people."

The rehabilitation will include, along with: evangelism and Bible study, wholesome recreation, clubs and library work. Dr. Sadler expressed the hope that additional help may be given later.

A sum of $7,500 was earmarked for the Baptist World Alliance for the purpose of bringing to this country an additional number of refugees who have been granted entry privileges under a new act of Congress. Dr. Sadler said there are a number of Baptists among these refugees.

Fifteen thousand dollars will go to Hong Kong for the erection of an inexpensive building where the Hong Kong Baptist Association may carry on school work for the children of refugees from Communist China. Ten thousand dollars was made available for Korean relief.

MORTON MAN MAKES 24-YEAR RECORD

M. C. TOWNSEND

A record of Sunday School attendance of 24 years without a single miss, has been made by M. C. Townsend, prominent Morton business man, who observed Sunday, October 3, by attending Sunday School as usual and rounding out 24 years of answering roll call at Sunday School.

Mr. Townsend has often been out of town on Sundays but when he was, he always attended Sunday School wherever he was and got a letter from the superintendent that he was present and accounted for.

All these 1,248 Sundays that he attended the Sunday School were in Baptist churches. The Morton Church is the home church of Mr. Townsend for the past 42 years.

Three years previously he missed a mark of perfect record missing Sunday School one time in each of these years, caused from illness and death in his family.

Personal Evangelism Is Every Christian's Job

BY FLORENCE C. BRILLHART

"If only Christians could match the kind of zeal that a Communist functionary has, they could win the world," fires Helen Birney, who has transferred her Marxist enthusiasm to Christ.

A staff member of the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade, Mrs. Birney helped organize this new group which is designed to enlist the forces of Christianity in the fight against the Reds. Despite wounds she will carry to her grave as the souvenir from 25 years of active Communism, Mrs. Birney's capacity to work zealously for Christ is not diminished. She lectures on the average three times a day, with crowds around 1800 people. Frequently she is branded as "Mrs. Judas" or sometimes as "J. Edgar Hoover's paid agent."

Mrs. Birney's break with the Communist party came when she finally learned it operates on falsehood. With her own eyes she was reluctantly forced to see that its pretended friendship for the underprivileged was a fraud. And it was for these that she had joined their ranks.

Later under mountains of frustration, Helen broke down to the point of having to be hospitalized. She hurled her rosary across the room one day when a handful of church members came stalking through the hospital witnessing through the hymn, "Take the Name of Jesus With You." This was seed for thought.

What really did the job though was a preacher who whisked to the house where Helen Birney roomed and unfolded Bible truths. Since she was brought up in an ungodly home its message was brand new. She gladly accepted the word once she heard it, and it has met every need.

As a result of Mrs. Birney's own satisfying experience of salvation by grace, she is now an ardent believer in personal evangelism out where people live. "According to God's book," she says, "we are all told to serve as His minister, carrying the Bread of Life to every human being."

QUESTION:

I am eighteen years old and try to live a Christian life. I met a sixteen-year-old girl and am in love with her. At least I want to help her. But she drinks. My friends tell me to quit her unless she gives up this awful habit. She does not want to drink but goes to the wrong parties. Should I quit her? Or how can I help her to quit drinking?

Answer:

My dear boy, never marry a woman to reform her. Romantic love and changing people usually do not mix. In other words, if this girl were really in love with you she would quit drinking of her own accord, if she could.

I do not see your girl's picture very clearly. It would be necessary to get some idea of when she drinks, how much, and why.

Christ has done wonders for some young people whom I have known. And he could for your girl. But if you are to be a witness to this girl, you will have to become a great Christian yourself. A good Christian hardly ever tries to stop someone from doing something like drinking. He sets them such a beautiful example that they are naturally attracted to his way of life. Try that.

Ga. Baptists Veto College Move Proposal

AUGUSTA, Ga. (BP) The Georgia Baptist Convention turned down a proposal of its education commission to relocate two of its six colleges, adopted its largest Cooperative Program budget in history and called for "the spirit of Christ" in racial problems, in annual session recently.

A three-hour debate preceded defeat of the plan to relocate Truett-McConnell, Cleveland and Brewton-Parker of Mount Vernon, junior colleges in areas of greater wealth and student possibilities. The education commission had given the alternative of relocation or continued high costs per student for operation. The convention accepted the latter plan.

The Cooperative Program budget provides $792,300 for Convention-wide causes, the same for Georgia, and $269,000 for administration and promotional expenses. The total is $1,853,600 with a goal of $2,000,000.

James W. Merritt, who retires January 1 as the executive secretary, was elected president. He is retiring after thirty-four years of denominational service, including twenty-four as state secretary.

The Baptist Record has received for review two books concerning the recent meeting of the World Council of Churches which was held at Evanston, Illinois August 15-31. THE EVANSTON SCRAP-BOOK by James W. Kennedy contains 124 pages and is paper-bound and according to the author is an attempt to gather up and preserve choice fragments which otherwise might be lost to the majority of church members of America. In a very few pages he has tried to give an on-the-spot recording of the events, headlines, items of special interest, sidelights, persons of interest, descriptions of places, impressions, memories, and the like. Single copies are 50 cents and ten copies or more to the same address are 35 cents all postpaid. ers Printing Company, Box 37, Lebanon, Pennsylvania. The second volume received is entitled EVANSTON SPEAKS. According to the preface, the documents printed in this booklet constitute a platform on which the churches of the world council can stand together in a substantiated creed. The "Message" and the "Resolutions" were officially adopted by the Evanston Assembly as a whole. The "Reports" were drafted by the sections dealing, respectively, with the six subjects, and after debate and subsequent division by the Assembly in preliminary session were received and "commended" to the Churches for study and appropriate action. The book presents the official text of the message adopted by the Assembly and of the reports by the six sections which were "commended to the churches for study and appropriate action," also related resolutions. The price is 50 cents per copy. Orders should be sent to the World Council of Churches, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York 10, New York.

Churches Must Evangelize—Not Recruit

By SEARCY S. GARRISON

"And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved" (Acts 2:47). Thus the sacred historic tells of the evangelistic victories which followed the pentecostal experience in the Jerusalem church. Church membership was for those who had been saved, for those who had a vital experience with Christ, for those who were prepared to accept the obligations which Christ Jesus had placed upon his followers.

Baptists hold to the conviction of early Christians, that church membership is for regenerate people and for regenerate people only. Only twice-born people are prepared to witness to the truths proclaimed in the baptismal ordinance and only twice-born people are able to live the life and discharge the responsibilities of church membership. Some of the saddest and most tragic chapters of Christian history have been written because un-Christian people have made their way into the membership of the Christian church.

The conception of the character of the church will determine in a full measure the character of evangelism employed by the church. If the church is conceived as a religious and culture club, then evangelism becomes little more than an effort to get people to join up. However, if the primitive Christian conviction is maintained, that church membership is for regenerate individuals, then evangelism must be an effort to bring people to a saving knowledge, a personal trust, and a vital experience in Christ. Evangelism inspired by this conviction will not be a recruiting operation but a loving witness appealing for a decision involving total commitment to Christ.

The effective evangelist need not be a learned theologian, but his witness must include teaching. Salvation involves action upon truths sincerely believed.

The effective evangelistic ministry must provide loving guidance and wise persuasion by those who love Christ and souls for whom he died. Who can forget Dr. Truett's story of the farmer who sought to win his neighbor to Christ? The neighbor offered the excuse that he could not attend the revival services in the country church because he was behind with his crop and had to plough. Early the next morning this Christian farmer came to the field of his friend to take his place at the plough that he might attend the revival service. He went and was converted. The church must prepare its members for this art of winsome witnessing if it is to have an effective evangelistic program.

On the day of pentecost a man of God stood up to preach to the assembled throng. Peter's preaching was Bible-based, Christ-centered, courageous in its rebuke of sin, constructive in its presentation of the way of salvation, and compassionate in spirit. The Holy Spirit used the preaching to lead men to a decision for Christ. The effective evangelistic ministry will magnify preaching such as Peter did at Pentecost.

Such an evangelistic ministry will be the means of "adding to the church daily such as should be saved," and in maintaining the New Testament standard of a regenerate church membership.

(Editor's Note: Garrison is executive secretary-elect of the Baptist Convention of the State of Georgia.)

Church Service To Be Televised Every Sunday

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (RNS)—The complete 11 o'clock service of First Church here will henceforth be seen on television every Sunday.

"We believe this is the first time in the history of television for a single church to initiate regular weekly telecasts of its entire services," said Ted Snyder, manager of KOAT-TV, the station that will carry the program.

Previously, KOAT-TV had been televising services of a number of Albuquerque churches on a rotating basis. But when some of these decided against continuation of this plan, a contract was signed solely with First Church for telecasts every Sunday.

Rev. W. D. Wyatt, pastor of the First Church, advised his congregation that the telecasts will not involve any expense to the church. Six Baptist businessmen have agreed to play for the program alternately.

First Church leaders think the telecasts will help, rather than reduce, church attendance. They point out that the 11 o'clock services have been broadcast on Radio Station KGGM every Sunday for several years—a period in which the congregation has made rapid growth. Its membership is now one of the largest of any denomination in the state.

The television agreement will continue indefinitely. No terminal date has been set.

GRAHAM PLANS WORLD TOUR IN 1956

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (RNS)—Evangelist Billy Graham is planning a preaching trip around the world in 1956, he disclosed here.

Dr. Graham said he is considering invitations from Singapore, Hong Kong, Formosa, the Philippines, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa and added he feels the foreign field "may be the direction the Lord is taking us."

He declared that he believes the spiritual resurgence in the world today has helped ease international tensions and feels he may make a further contribution to this cause by campaigns abroad.

Under present plans, Dr. Graham would conduct a week of meetings in each of the cities he would visit on his globe-circling tour.

Next March, the evangelist returns to Great Britain for a campaign beginning March 21 in Glasgow, Scotland.

Dr. Graham visited at his international headquarters here and transcribed three of his network radio programs.

He plans to record enough broadcasts in advance so he can take off January and February for a rest, probably going to an island in the Caribbean "where I can get away from mail and telephones."

Referring to the large number of magazine articles which have featured him recently, Dr. Graham said they have given him an increased feeling of responsibility.

"I am very humbly aware that all the glory must go to God," he said. "If I start to take any of the credit, He will take His hand of blessing away from us."

"I hope through all this that I am learning and growing and that every experience will knock off another rough edge."

Cardiff Archbishop Warns Parents On Non-Catholic Services

LONDON (RNS)—Archbishop Michael McGrath of Cardiff, Wales, has threatened to excommunicate Roman Catholic parents who permit their children to attend services in non-Catholic schools.

The archbishop pointed out, in a pastoral letter read in all churches of the archdiocese, that many Catholic children had to attend non-Catholic schools. He said Catholic parents were strictly required to write headmasters of such schools informing them that their children must not attend non-Catholic services.

"This is a strict instruction," Archbishop McGrath stressed, "and failure to observe it by the first Sunday in the New Year will entail parents being excommunicated."

Southern Baptist Literature Used In Foreign Countries

Nashville, Tenn. (BSSB)—Southern Baptists share their literature with fellow Baptists in fifty-nine countries and territories outside the United States.

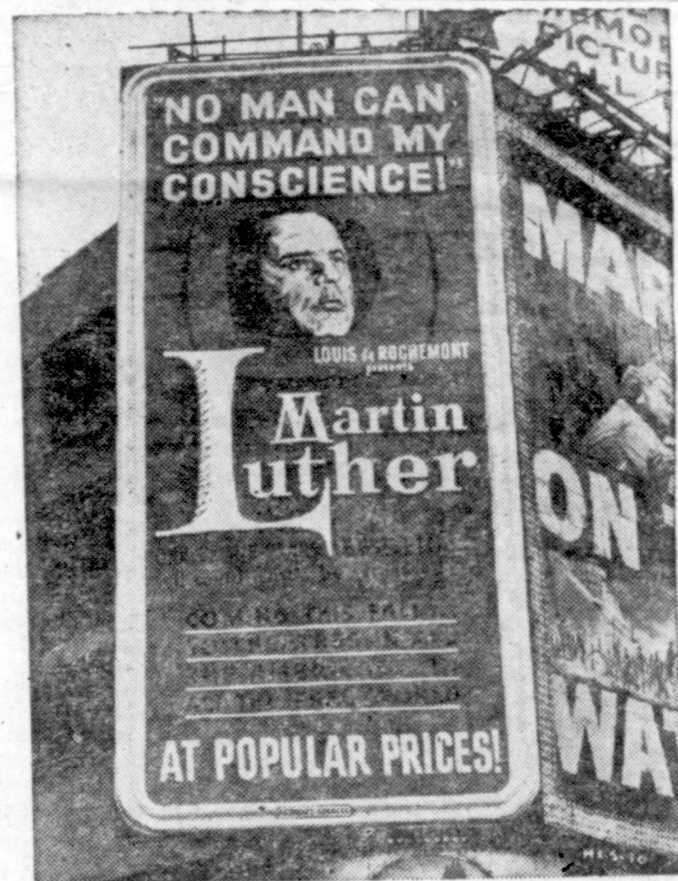

John L. Alden, Jr., supervisor of order processing for the Baptist Sunday School Board, reports that individuals and churches in each of these fifty-nine countries have received at least one order of literature within the last six months. Included in the list of countries are the home mission fields of Cuba, Mexico, Panama, and Alaska; foreign mission fields in Latin America, the Orient, the Near East, Europe, and Africa; and other countries in which Southern Baptists have no mission work.

This literature, in our language, is shipped directly to the foreign countries by the Baptist Sunday School Board. In addition, Baptist publishing houses in this country and other countries translate Southern Baptist periodicals into several foreign languages.
